1. Executive Summary

The blockchain revolution has provided the world with opportunities to create impactful, community-driven initiatives. Built on transparency and trust, The Last Block Benders (TLBB) aims to be more than just a crypto token and NFT project—it's a movement driving real-world, measurable impact. Combining humor, art, charity, and education, TLBB strives to unite the cryptosphere in the name of positive change.

Key Highlights:

- 50% of transaction fees and NFT proceeds directly fund global charitable initiatives.
- Education-first approach via Block3AI.com to spread blockchain, web3 and AI knowledge.
- Transparent operations, with open-source smart contracts and publicly trackable charity wallets.

2. Introduction

Cryptocurrencies and NFTs have created opportunities to innovate, build communities, and support real-world causes. However, many projects focus solely on speculation, personal interests of the team (or bad actors) and often times greed. There is a blatant lack and neglect of trust and purpose in a lot of projects today. Crypto needs more heroes, and The Last Block Benders are here to be just that.

The Last Block Benders seeks to reshape the cryptosphere by providing:

- A charity-driven crypto token focusing on trust and transparency.
- Creative NFTs and artwork that inspire while supporting charitable causes.
- A global educational platform to empower blockchain adoption (Block3AI.com).

3. Vision and Mission

Our vision is to establish TLBB as the leading token and NFT project for positive global impact, trusted by investors, enthusiasts, and nonprofits alike.

Mission

1. Build a sustainable, charity-driven economy through the distribution of the token fees and NFT sales + royalties to a dedicated charity wallet, sent directly to reputable charities via TheGivingBlock.com.

2. Help foster education and adoption of blockchain, web3 and AI technologies through Block3AI.com.

3. Engage and empower communities of like-minded individuals with a focus on project transparency and accountability.

4. Tokenomics
